ABOUT HAWARD PUBLICATIONS

Haward Publications is a convenient online store where one can order professional books, standards, videos, CBTs and other references online through www.haward.cc. Affiliated with the largest publishers globally that specialize in scientific, technical, academic, engineering, business and medical books and materials, topped by a customer-friendly online interface, Haward Publications is truly the perfect source for individuals and book-seekers in the education and industrial fields.

Haward Publications boasts of its wide selection of books, references, codes, standards, training modules and even Computer-Based Training (CBT) solutions and softwares. Browse through www.haward.cc and you will get hundreds of thousands of titles provided by our globally affiliated publishers, wherein you will be satisfied by the value, convenience and quality service.

Aside from books, reference materials, videos and standards, anyone can now easily avail of state-of-the-art Computer-Based Trainings through Haward Publications. These CBTs are carefully developed by Haward Technology’s experts and instructors using a user-friendly and animated interface to make learning a convenient yet worthwhile learning experience. These CBTs boast of their interactive animations and simulated figures and diagrams to explain the topics within the program’s modules, presented in an organized and systematic approach for the participants to progress through the lessons at their own pace. Moreover, Haward Technology can further develop bespoke CBTs tailored to meet your more specific or specialized learning requirements.

There’s no need to leave the vicinity of your home or office as Haward Publications will deliver your orders straight to your door step.

Visit www.haward.cc now and learn how we can help you with your publications needs 24 x 7. For inquiries and assistance, email us at info@haward.cc.
